The City of Coburg ordains as follows:

Section 1. Purpose and Findings. This ordinance is intended to provide a safe, profitable, fair and peaceful method for certain persons, businesses and non-profit organizations to conduct any lawful trade, profession, occupation, charitable or other community or society improvement activity for gain or otherwise within the city limits. It is necessary for these purposes that the persons and entities regulated by this ordinance provide information in advance necessary for the city to plan for needed public services and help pay for the city's police and fire protection, street maintenance, street lighting and other public services. It is also necessary for the city to protect consumers and citizens against health and safety risks, undesired or unreasonable invasions of their privacy, fraud and deception, as well as the sale of inferior products or services provided by the persons, businesses and organizations to be regulated herein. These purposes are based upon the City Council findings that individuals, firms, companies, corporations, associations, partnerships, other legal entities and non-profit organizations engaging in activities regulated herein:

(a) Require increased police supervision and other city and district services for which prior notice and planning are necessary;

(b) Can create or constitute a public nuisance and danger to the city and its citizens;

(c) Do not pay ad valorem property taxes, other taxes or fees used to fund municipal services, which benefit them;

(d) Are not as available to answer citizen complaints made to local and state consumer protection agencies;

(e) Receive the benefits of police and fire protection, make use of public streets, sidewalks, street lights, water and other municipal services, all of which are critically limited by the lack of other funding sources.

(f) In the case of community special event sponsors, provide benefits to citizens, permanent local businesses and local non-profit entities by staging community events that serve citizens, attract others to visit the city; provide the public with goods and services of participating vendors who are licensed by the sponsors based upon relevant event criteria; and donate net proceeds earned by the sponsor to the city, community non-profit organizations and persons to serve local needs.

Section 2. License Required. Unless exempted herein or by federal or state law, it shall be a violation of this ordinance for any person, for-profit legal entity or non-profit organization to conduct, engage in, carry on, or practice any trade, profession, occupation, pursuit or activity specified herein within the City of Coburg without first securing a license or certificate from the city, and paying the required non-refundable application and license or certificate fees set by resolution of the City Council.
