Administrative Order 2020-04 Extending Coburg State of Emergency Declaration

APRIL 3, 2020

The City Administrator of the City of Coburg finds that:

- A. On March 20, 2020, the City Council adopted Resolution 2020-06, declaring a state of emergency due to COVID-19.
- B. Resolution 2020-06 provides that the emergency declaration remains in effect through April 3, 2020.
- C. Resolution 2020-06 also cancelled all non-essential city commissions, committees, task forces, and city events until April 2, 2020.
- D. Pursuant to Ordinance No. A-203, the City Council has delegated to the City Administrator the authority to declare a state of emergency and to extend the duration of an emergency declaration.
- E. Pursuant to Ordinance No. A-203, the City Administrator has consulted with the Mayor and a majority of the City Council prior to executing this order.
- F. Ordinance No. A-203 provides that an emergency declaration may be extended for additional periods of two weeks, if conditions continue to warrant such an extension.
- G. The state of emergency declared by Governor Kate Brown on March 8, 2020, by its terms, continues for 60 days; that declaration has not been terminated.
- H. The declaration of a nationwide emergency by President Trump has not been lifted.
- I. The circumstances surrounding the coronavirus warrant an extension of the declaration of emergency adopted by the City Council on March 20, 2020.

NOW, THEREFORE, based on the above findings, the City Administrator of the City of Coburg orders that:

- 1. The duration of the declaration of state of emergency is hereby extended for an additional period of two weeks, through the end of the day on Friday, April 17, 2020.
- 2. All non-essential city commission meetings, committees, task forces and city events are cancelled through the end of the day on April 17, 2020.

3. Public hearings necessary to meet state-mandated land use review timelines may be held with the following social distancing modifications:

- a. Encouragement of livestreaming or remote accessing capabilities
- b. Increased spacing between chairs, at least 6 feet, where necessary
- c. Such other modifications as the City Administrator deems lawful and appropriate

DATED this 3rd day of April, 2020

Anne Heath, City Administrator

Ratified by City Council on April 21, 2020

Ray Smith, Mayor
